

HOME

Offered with no onward chain, immediate internal inspection is highly recommended to appreciate the superb accommodation this surprisingly spacious bay windowed semi detached home has to offer.

Finished to a beautiful standard throughout with attractive internal décor, the property internally offers a well-proportioned living space with three double sized first floor bedrooms and a large bathroom. With a fresh contemporary feel, the property offers spacious enclosed gardens to the rear, a garage to the side and a double drive to the front.

Benefiting from gas central and UPVC double glazing, the property is set close to a superb range of amenities including good schools, sea road shopping centre, Seaburn Metro Station, whilst Sunderland's magnificent coastland with award winning Blue Flag beaches is also within easy walking distance.

Ideal for first time buyers and families who require a larger than average living space, this beautiful home should prove to be very popular indeed and a quick sale is anticipated therefore immediate inspection should be considered essential!
