

This recently improved and beautifully presented 1930's Bay windowed semi-detached bungalow occupies a sought-after crescent within a well-established residential area, ideally located close to excellent amenities, the coastline and Roker Park.

The property has been thoughtfully extended to provide well-proportioned, turn-key accommodation, making it ideal for buyers seeking convenient single-level living. The internal layout briefly comprises a welcoming reception hall, living room, conservatory, extended kitchen, two bedrooms, and a bathroom.

Externally, the home enjoys attractive gardens to the front, a pattern-imprinted concrete driveway to the side, and delightful sun-filled walled gardens to the rear, enhanced by appealing landscaping.

Further benefits include gas central heating and UPVC double glazing throughout. Properties of this style and location are always in strong demand, and early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
