

This deceptively spacious double fronted detached house set along the quiet street just off Newcastle Road in the ever fashionable coastal suburb of Fulwell offers generous living accommodation ideal for families who require a larger than average home. Finished to a good standard throughout with modern day fittings and attractive decor the property internally features a large reception hall, lounge, dining room, kitchen, three double bedrooms at first floor level along with a family bathroom. Benefiting from gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, the property externally has a south facing courtyard to the rear and is a stones throw from a superb range of amenities including Seaburn Metro station, Sea Road shopping centre and good schools. Only upon internal inspection can you fully appreciate the fine qualities this home has to offer!
